Fox Run at Orchard Park Announces New Assistant Director of Dining Services

WNY's premier retirement community hires Tina Jernatowski as Assistant Director of Dining Services

ORCHARD PARK, NEW YORK: CEO Bill Wlodarczyk is pleased to announce that Tina Jernatowski was recently hired to the role of Assistant Director of Dining Services in our Health Center. In this position Tina will be enhancing the dining room experience for our Health Center Residents. Overseeing food production and service with the resident's clinical nutrition needs.

In 2015 she graduated with a bachelor's degree in Dietetics. Then furthering her education earning her master's in clinical nutrition with Nutrition Advance Certificate in 2017. Since then, Tina has worked in many retirement communities in the Buffalo area as well as spending some time in Nashville Tennessee.

Tina lived in Nashville for three years before returning to WNY. She now resides in Alden NY in her family home she recently purchased, with her dog Nash. Sitting on one-acre of land that is Tina and Nash's favorite place to be. She is excited about her new position and hopes to one day be a resource for Independent Living Residents and for them to utilize her expertise in nutrition.
