St. Ann's Community at Cherry Ridge wins Best Assisted Living Facility in Rochester Business Journal's 2019 Reader Rankings Awards

St. Ann's Community at Cherry Ridge is proud to announce that they have won Best Assisted Living Facility in the 2019 Reader Rankings Awards, hosted by the Rochester Business Journal and The Daily Record.

The winners were announced last night at the Reader Rankings Gala at the Joseph A. Floreano Rochester Riverside Convention Center. More than 13,000 nominations were collected during the nomination period in March and early April. The winners were determined by more than 47,000 votes cast from April 30 to May 24. Nominations and votes were gathered in about 80 different categories.

"It's an honor to win this award," said Jennifer Blackchief, Vice President of Housing and Strategy Officer at St. Ann's Community. "It is our privilege to serve the residents and families of St. Ann's Community at Cherry Ridge and to be recognized by them and the community for the high standards to which we hold ourselves. We know that receiving a "best in class" award is not a destination, but an acknowledgment that we are on the right path for a long and incredibly meaningful journey."
