

VillageCare Announces John Behre as New Board Chair

The Board of Directors of VillageCare announced that John W. Behre, Jr. has been elected to serve as Chair of the Board beginning May 2019. As part of a planned transition, Mr. Behre succeeds David Sidwell, who has served as Chair for 12 years and will remain on VillageCare's Board of Directors.

Mr. Behre has been a VillageCare Board Member since 2010 and most recently served as Chair of the Finance Committee. Previously, he had served as Chair of the Audit Committee. He is counsel to The Richman Group, Inc., a national tax credit syndicator and real estate developer. Behre graduated with a B.A. degree in history from Columbia College, and received his J.D. degree from New York University.

"I am delighted to remain on VillageCare's Board of Directors under John's leadership," states outgoing Board Chair David Sidwell. "I am grateful for the commitment of VillageCare's Board and leadership staff to the people we serve, and I believe many great achievements are ahead as we continue our organization's mission of promoting healing, better health and well-being to the fullest extent possible."

"John's successful business acumen and law practices, combined with his long-time passion for community-based health care delivery, will bring tremendous value to VillageCare, and by extension to each individual we serve," says Emma DeVito, President and Chief Executive Officer at VillageCare.

With over 40 years of delivering high quality health care in New York City, VillageCare offers managed care as well as post-acute and community-based programs. VillageCareMAX is one of the largest and fastest growing Plans in New York City. The organization understands the current state of need of those we serve and pursue appropriate responses.
