Higher Ed Fundraising Administrator Joins Brothers of Mercy

CLARENCE, N.Y. – Anthony Fulgenzio has been named the new Executive Director of the Brothers of Mercy Campus Foundation.

Tony has held various executive positions in academia including most recently as Interim and Associate Vice President of Advancement at Daemen University where he put together an entire new team in Advancement. He also was

Vice President of Advancement at Mercyhurst University and at Lake Erie College in Painesville, Ohio and held several leadership roles in fundraising at Gannon University in Erie, PA. He has been a member of the Brothers of Mercy's Foundation advisory board since 2022.

“I am thrilled to join the Brothers of Mercy family and help to continue the Brothers’ legacy of providing quality care for western New York seniors.”

Before his fundraising career, Fulgenzio worked for nearly 20 years in broadcast journalism at radio and television newsrooms in both Erie and Columbus, Ohio.

Peter Eimer is Chief Executive Officer with the Brothers of Mercy. “We are very happy to welcome Tony to the team. His background in fundraising as well as media relations will be invaluable to our organization.”
