

Heritage Wins "Best of the Best" Award

The Post-Journal, of Jamestown, NY, recently awarded Heritage with the "Favorite Assisted Living" and "Favorite Senior Housing" awards in their "Best of The Best" Reader's Choice Awards. Winners were selected by a total count of online votes from the Post-Journal's website, as well as the paper ballots submitted by their readers.

Lisa Haglund, Heritage vice-president of marketing and development, expressed her gratitude to the voters for selecting Heritage as their favorite, and shared why Heritage is such a unique senior housing community. "As a not-for-profit, we are able to provide for our residents who may outlive their resources. Once you are home at Heritage, you will never need to worry about leaving when there are no more funds. We live our mission each day to promote HOPE, DIGNITY, and PURPOSEFUL LIVING, and are blessed to care for all of our residents. We are honored to be the recipients of these awards, and thank our community members for putting their faith and trust in Heritage"

Heritage Ministries was founded as the Orphanage and Homes of the Free Methodist Church in 1886 and has grown from its original campus in Gerry, NY, to six locations in New York with additional affiliations in the states of Washington, Illinois, and Pennsylvania. As a not-for-profit provider of senior care and housing, Heritage is a leader in the industry, employing approximately 1,500 team members, and serving over 2,500 individuals annually. With locations in New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, and Washington, Heritage and its affiliates provide rehabilitation and skilled nursing services, independent retirement housing, and assisted living. The Homestead Stables provides intergenerational equestrian opportunities as well as boarding, training, and lessons. In addition, childcare is provided at two campuses, allowing for intergenerational programs. For more information on Heritage Ministries, please visit www.heritage1886.org
