

The Osborn to Host Annual Easter Egg Hunt on March 30

-Community event features 6,000 candy-filled Easter eggs on The Osborn's majestic lawn-

Rye, NY, March 1, 2024, Spring is in the air as The Osborn announced its Easter Egg Hunt will take place on Saturday, March 30, 2024, on the senior living community's beautiful campus in Rye (101 Theall Road). This popular annual event is held in memory of The Osborn's longtime board member and former Chair, Jack Miller.

During the fun-filled morning, an extravagant bounty of 6,000 candy-filled Easter eggs will be hidden for children to find, gather and enjoy. The Easter Bunny will be on hand and available for photos. The festivities also feature carnival games and refreshments available for purchase.

Residents of The Osborn gather to watch the Egg Hunt from the sidelines of the South Lawn and Porch, giving seniors and children a chance to share the excitement. For nearly two decades, this event has been drawing hundreds of participants from all over Westchester County as well as southern Fairfield County, Connecticut.

The Osborn Easter Egg Hunt is free and open to the public and pre-registration is NOT required. The Hunt begins promptly at 11:15 a.m. with gates opening at 10:45 a.m. Participants should bring their own baskets to gather eggs.
