Governor Cuomo Appoints James Davis, President and CEO of Amsterdam Continuing Care Health System to New York State Council

New York, NY June 29, 2016 - James Davis, President and CEO of Amsterdam Continuing Care Health System, was recently appointed by New York State Governor Andrew Cuomo to serve on the New York State Continuing Care Retirement Community Council for a two year term ending June 24, 2018.

The Amsterdam Continuing Care Health System includes the Amsterdam at Harborside in Port Washington, N.Y., one of only 12 CCRCs in New York State and Amsterdam Nursing Home in New York City.

The Council was established to develop and enforce laws and regulations that govern the development and operation of Continuing Care Retirement Communities like the Amsterdam at Harborside.
