

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

- Personal assistance and advice from staff, state and federal policy analysts and legislative advocates.
- Emergent, service line specific information, and supportive services issues with state and national perspectives including weekly Intelligence electronic newsletter.
- Discounts on top-quality professional education, growth, accreditation and career enhancement programs through LeadingAge New York's education and research affiliate, the Foundation for Long Term Care including Leading U Education & Events News bi-weekly electronic newsletter.
- Affordable products and services such as energy savings and insurance programs designed especially for Members through LeadingAge New York Services Solutions.
- Savings through Value First, the group purchasing organization owned by Value First and many state affiliates allowing members to leveraging over $40 billion in purchasing power through over 400 vendor contracts.
- Free access to LeadingAge New York FASTracker and Quality Metrics.
- Networking with other LeadingAge New York members through regional meetings, events and online communities.