

Edna Tina Wilson Living Center Holds First Ever Food Truck Rodeo

Edna Tina Wilson Living Center in Greece, NY held its first ever food truck rodeo on Thursday, August 17th. The event was open to the Rochester, NY community and was a great success; the turnout was so great, one of the food trucks sold out before the event was over. In addition to the food trucks, live entertainment performed, and tours of the Living Center were available to visitors. The Administrator, Shari Hutchison, said: "It was great to see the success of this event that showcased our Living Center to the general public. It highlighted that nursing homes can provide an active, rich life for our residents, who can remain actively engaged in the community."
