

LeadingAge New York Honors Helen Vitale of VillageCare at 46 & Ten with the Employee of Distinction Award

LeadingAge of New York highlights and honors individuals with extraordinary dedication and commitment to their organization through its Employee of Distinction Award. Each year, this award is presented to direct service and indirect service staff throughout New York State.

This year, receiving the award in the New York City region is Helen Vitale, Resident Experience Coordinator at VillageCare 46 & Ten. Ms. Vitale has embodied the very meaning of this award in her extraordinary efforts of direct and indirect staff care, and patient care. Through challenging times, Vitale consistently demonstrated a willingness to make personal sacrifices to improve the lives of others.

Vitale is an employee of distinction, and goes beyond her role in provision of service to all stakeholders while maintaining a spirit of optimism and joy. She is a model employee and deserving of the Employee of Distinction Award.
