RED, WHITE AND BREW AT KITTY HOYNES BENEFITS ST. CAMILLUS, SEPT. 23

(Syracuse, NY) If you love tasting fine wines, craft beers and gourmet foods, then look no further.

Kitty Hoynes hosts the 7th annual Red, White and Brew wine, beer and food tasting with raffles to benefit The Centers at St. Camillus and its affiliate Integrity Home Care Services on Sunday afternoon, September 23, 2018, from 1-4PM.

Tickets are $35 each. Kitty Hoynes Irish Pub and Restaurant is located at 301 W. Fayette St. in the historic Armory District of downtown Syracuse. In addition to sampling several wines, beers and foods, there will be valuable raffles, sports on every TV in the pub and a cash bar.

Attendees will also receive a complimentary gift bag with wine and beer-related swag from event sponsors including By-the-Case sponsors Harbor Pharmacy and HealtheConnections, By-the-Bottle sponsors Christopher Community, Inc. and Laboratory Alliance of CNY, LLC, By-the-Pint sponsors Brown and Brown Empire State and Marsh, and By-the-Bunch sponsors K&A Radiologic Technology Services, Inc. and Marilyn Wurzburger.

Tickets can be purchased online at redwhitebrew2018.brownpapertickets.com, by calling 315-703-0732 or in person at Kitty Hoynes.

Nestled on the near west side of Syracuse between Tipp Hill and Fairmount, The Centers at St. Camillus (opened in 1969) and its affiliate Integrity Home Care Services (in 1996) are voluntary, not-for-profit organizations dedicated to caring for life through a broad range of health services for adults. St. Camillus' six primary care programs and services include residential skilled nursing, short term rehabilitation, brain injury rehabilitation (the only state-certified program in central and upstate New York), home care (certified and licensed), adult day (medical and social), and medical transportation. Most of the 3,500 people St. Camillus serves annually live at home or in the community, of which nearly 500 are able to return home each year from one of their inpatient rehabilitation stays.
