Beechwood Continuing Care

For Immediate Release: October 3, 2018

Beechwood Continuing Care Names Ken Keenan Director of Spiritual Care.

Getzville, NY- Beechwood Continuing Care has named Ken Keenan to the position of Director of Spiritual Care. In his new role, Keenan is responsible for meeting the spiritual needs of Beechwood's residents, which reflects Beechwood's mission of "mind, body, spirit."

"Everyone has their individual spiritual needs," says Keenan. "I will assist in any way I can, whether it's helping them cope, stay optimistic or feel hopeful. I'll do this through pastoral counseling, prayer, religious services and in any other way that will benefit our residents." Keenan is also working to expand Beechwood's Spiritual Care Volunteer Program, and asks anyone interested in joining to call him at 458-1905, ext. 7109.

Formerly the chaplain at Hospice Buffalo, Keenan is a native of New York City. He holds a Master's degree in Divinity from Christ the King Seminary and a Master's in Philosophy from Fordham University. He resides in Tonawanda, NY.
