St. Ann's Community to Open New Adult Day Program in Irondequoit

A new program coming to Irondequoit will soon help families overcome challenges they may face as their loved ones advance in age.

St. Ann's Community is opening an Adult Day Program in the Durand Senior Apartments that are now under construction on Culver Road near Seabreeze. The program will be open both to residents of the apartments and to the greater community. It will provide both medical and social services, and it will also offer transportation. Participants will enjoy structured social activities, hot midday meals, assistance with medications, wellness programs, entertainment, health monitoring, and skilled nursing care if needed.

St. Ann's Adult Day Programs are ideal for older adults and people with disabilities who need medical services or skilled nursing care, have a chronic illness or memory problems, are socially isolated or depressed, or have decreased mobility and need rehabilitation support.

Adult Day Programs also offer a much-needed respite for caregivers while providing a safe, supervised, social environment for loved ones during the hours when it is needed most.

The program is scheduled to open January 2019. To sign up for the Adult Day Program at Durand Senior Apartments, contact Rola O'Meally at 585-697-6381 or email romeally@mystanns.com.
