

The Osborn Holds Alzheimer's Walk

The Osborn in Rye held a special on-campus Alzheimer's Walk on October 1, raising $9,000 for the Alzheimer's Association®. The Walk has a special significance at the senior living community, where so many people and their loved ones are impacted by this devastating disease. The Osborn brought the Walk to its campus with a specially designed route that allowed people of all ages and abilities to participate. Pictured in Photo 1: (left to right) David Sobel, Executive Director, Alzheimer's Association Hudson Valley Chapter and Matthew Anderson, President and CEO of The Osborn.

