THE NEW JEWISH HOME CELEBRATES 8 REMARKABLE NEW YORKERS OVER 80

6th Annual "Eight Over Eighty" Benefit Gala honors Harold Grinspoon * Marie Holley * Madeleine May Kunin * Sid Lapidus * Ruth Messinger * Tao Porchon-Lynch * Daniel Rose * Calvin Trillin *

WHAT: The 6th annual EIGHT OVER EIGHTY benefit gala of The New Jewish Home celebrates eight trailblazers who, in their 80s and beyond, continue to live lives of remarkable achievement. This year's honorees are: real estate entrepreneur and philanthropist Harold Grinspoon; The New Jewish Home's own Marie Holley; first female governor of Vermont Madeleine May Kunin; private equity legend and bibliophile Sid Lapidus; global ambassador for American Jewish World Service and former Manhattan Borough President Ruth Messinger; world's oldest yoga teacher (at 101) Tao Porchon-Lynch; renowned urban developer and essayist Daniel Rose; and acclaimed author and humorist Calvin Trillin.

Held in the Ziegfeld Ballroom, the event will be hosted by David Remnick, editor of The New Yorker. This year's gala is expected to raise more than $1 million to support the mission of The New Jewish Home.

The New Jewish Home celebrates eight remarkable people who exemplify what it truly means to "Age Like a New Yorker" with meaning and purpose. The Eight Over Eighty benefit raises funds to support The New Jewish Home, a comprehensive health care system serving older adults since 1848.

This year's gala benefit committee includes Lisa Lippman and Ben Finkelstein, Winnie and Steven Grinspoon, Susan and David Haas, Himan Brown Charitable Trust, Judy and Michael Luskin, Nancy and Morris Offit, Tamar Remz, Marcia Riklis, Klara and Larry Silverstein, and Diane Troderman.
