

Sarah Neuman Opens New Short-Stay Rehabilitation Suite, Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Gardens

(FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Mamaroneck, New York) – The New Jewish Home continues to help post-acute patients 'get well and go home' at its Westchester campus, Sarah Neuman, with a new short-stay rehabilitation suite, Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Gardens.

Named in honor of longstanding Jewish Home funder, The Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation, the new 10,392-square foot rehabilitation suite serves 20 patients and combines The New Jewish Home's successful rehabilitation program with the comforts of home. Patients receive exceptional rehabilitation while living in a beautiful, non-institutional setting with luxurious amenities.

Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Gardens offers patients a renovated rehabilitation gym, state-of-the-art kitchen with personal chef, spa bathing center, a private dining room and a den with fireplace.

"The goal of our short-stay program is to provide the highest level of skilled rehabilitative care so our patients can 'get well and go home' in a serene and nurturing environment," said Jeffrey I. Farber, M.D., President and CEO of The New Jewish Home. "In addition to providing intensive rehabilitation, we wanted to make the entire experience as comfortable and productive as possible for our post-acute patients, especially as they face several significant transitions in such a short amount of time."

The New Jewish Home's Westchester campus, Sarah Neuman, offers short-stay rehabilitation and long-term skilled nursing care, featuring small house communities based on the Green House Model of care. Sarah Neuman also operates a specialized short-stay Heart Failure program, the first in Westchester County to receive the Joint Commission's Gold Seal of Approval.®
