Employee Tuition Assistance Program at the Brothers of Mercy is an Investment into the Future

Clarence, NY – As an investment for the future, so far in 2022 The Brothers of Mercy Campus has awarded tuition assistance of over $21,000 to 6 employees to help them further their education. This program includes paying full tuition at Trocaire college as well as tuition assistance annually up to $5000 per employee for programs at other local colleges.

Since the beginning of the program in 2017, tuition assistance has been awarded to team members totaling more than $178,000. The program is completely funded by The Brothers of Mercy Campus. “I am proud that we are committed to helping employees acquire skills and education to take on the growing complexities of providing care for elders. We recognize that we are investing into our future when we invest into the education of our team members” – Peter Eimer, CEO, The Brothers of Mercy.
