

Name: _____ Date _____

Exam Practice Test #11 during Covid 19 Quarantine

Multiple Choice. Choose the correct answer.

- When a resident is receiving oxygen, the nurse aide should
 - Make sure the tubing is free of kinks
 - Remove oxygen when the resident is eating
 - Place a NO VISITORS sign on the resident's door
 - Limit how often mouth care is provided to the resident
- A resident is NPO because of nausea. What should the nurse aide do?
 - Give the resident fluid in small amounts
 - Provide the resident with a small cup of ice chips
 - Ask the resident if he can handle and fluids with the nausea
 - Remove any fluids at the bedside including the water pitcher
- While helping the resident to get dressed, the nurse aide notices that the resident's breathing is faster. The resident says she feels tired. What should the nurse aide's first action be?
 - Dress the resident quickly
 - Check the resident's vital signs
 - Stop dressing the resident to let the resident rest
 - Go to find the nurse to check the resident
- The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) is important to the nurse aide because it
 - Allows residents to carry health care from the hospital to the nursing home
 - Provides for insurance coverage for residents and health care workers
 - Identifies protected health information that must remain confidential
 - Provides accountability for care offered across health care settings
- A resident who is in isolation needs a temperature taken several times a day. Where is the appropriate place for the thermometer to be kept?
 - At the nurses 'station
 - On the isolation cart outside the resident's room
 - In the dirty utility room
 - In the resident's room
- When a resident is dark-skinned, the first signs of skin breakdown, instead of appearing pale or red, may appear
 - Black
 - Green
 - Purple
 - White
- When helping admit a new resident, the nurse aide notices the resident's right-sided weakness from a stroke. The resident ask for help to the bathroom. Before assisting the resident, the nurse aide should
 - Ask how the resident went to the bathroom at home
 - Ask the resident to wait until the care plan is completed
 - Get instructions from the nurse about how to toilet the resident
 - Help the resident to the bathroom immediately, supporting the right side

Name: _____ Date _____

8. When bathing a resident, the nurse aide observes that the resident's great toe is red and swollen. Which of the following is the appropriate action by the nurse aide?
 - (A) Protect the toe by putting on an extra sock
 - (B) Report the observation to the nurse
 - (C) Apply antibiotic ointment to prevent infection
 - (D) Soak the foot in very warm water and dry gently

9. Before helping a resident to stand who has been lying in bed, the nurse aide needs to
 - (A) Find out what the resident plans to do for the day
 - (B) Make sure a walker is available for support in case it is needed
 - (C) Ask if the resident has taken any medications recently
 - (D) Allow time for the resident to adjust to sitting at the edge of the bed

10. To help prevent burns to residents during meals, the nurse aide should
 - (A) Place a clothing protector on the resident
 - (B) Wait to serve the food until hot food is cold
 - (C) Add ice to any hot liquids, such as coffee or soup
 - (D) Let residents know which foods and beverages are hot