

Chemung County Nursing Home Holds “Celebration of the Century”

Chemung County Nursing Home held the “Celebration of the Century” yesterday, honoring nine residents who are 100 and older. Margaret Carter (103), Jane Collins-Deyoe (104), Esther Hammond (102), Ruth Touschner (109), Mary Whitford (104), Harry Pryslak (100), Edna Mae Taylor (10), Betty Hatfield (102) and Winnifred Paterson, (104) all received proclamations from the Chemung county executive to commemorate this incredible milestone! Residents, families, staff enjoyed a special buffet, champagne toast, picture displays of a lifetime of special memories for them. Residents and families told staff it was so much fun, they felt so special!

