

Osborn Home Care's Michele Thomas Elected President of SPRYE

RYE, NY, August 19, 2019 – Michele Thomas, the executive vice president of The Osborn's Home Care division, has been recently elected as president of SPRYE, which serves residents of Harrison, Port Chester, Rye and Rye Brook. SPRYE is a non-profit, membership-based organization for adults 60 years and older who want to live confidently at home in the communities they love.

"I am so happy to be working with such a dedicated group of community volunteers," said Thomas, who has been volunteering at SPRYE for the past four years and will continue to be a volunteer in her new role. "SPRYE helps seniors enjoy a satisfying lifestyle by providing important and needed services."

Thomas, who was elected president of SPRYE at its Annual Meeting at Rye Town Pavilion in June, is the executive vice president of Osborn Home Care, a licensed home health agency. She is also the host of Good Living, a radio program heard in Fairfield and Westchester Counties on WGCH 1490 AM, Tuesday mornings from 9:30-10:00 a.m. She is active with the Alzheimer's Association and New York and Connecticut state home care associations, and is a member of the Hospice of Westchester Advisory Board.
