The Osborn Adds to Senior Management Team

Experts in home care and financial management named to top positions

Rye, NY (March 3, 2015) ... As part of its strategic growth efforts, The Osborn has named two new seasoned professionals to its senior management team, it was announced today by Mark Zwerger, President and Chief Executive Officer of The Osborn, Westchester's premier senior living community.

Michele Thomas, former President of Florida-based Family Home Health Services/Family Home Physicians, has been named to the new position of Executive Vice President of Osborn Home Care, The Osborn's fast-growing business unit which provides a wide range of care and personal assistance in a client's own home. "Michele brings an extraordinary understanding of the home care business," said Mr. Zwerger. "Additionally, she has a demonstrated record of innovation, particularly in the areas of sales management and program development. Osborn Home Care has experienced tremendous growth over the past few years and we know that with Michele on board we will be able to continue to expand the reach and capabilities of the organization."

Ms. Thomas joined Family Home Health Services/Family Home Physicians, based in Sarasota, in 2007, as Regional Director of Sales. She was subsequently named Vice President of Sales and Marketing and, ultimately, was appointed President in 2012. Earlier in her career, Ms. Thomas held positions with several leading health services companies, including Doctor's Orders, Physician's Choice Home Health Services, and Heartland Home Health & Hospice. Ms. Thomas is a prominent leader in professional groups as well, having served as an integral part of the Sarasota County Aging Network (SCAN), the Florida State Guardianship Association, and the American Academy of Home Care Medicine. Ms. Thomas and her husband are the parents of two children.

Also joining the executive team is Robert Davis, The Osborn's new Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer. Mr. Davis comes to The Osborn with a quarter century of financial leadership in the senior healthcare/housing industry. Mr. Davis has been with Jewish Home Lifecare since 1989, rising through the ranks to become the Vice President of Finance for a system that included 13 organizations throughout Manhattan, Westchester and the Bronx. Robert Davis received his B.A. and M.B.A. from Iona College. Mr. Davis and his family reside in Yorktown Heights, New York.

"The Osborn is recognized as an industry leader because of three key things," said Mr. Zwerger. "An unwavering commitment to our residents and their families, a mission driven by quality service that we steadfastly adhere to and a determination to hire the best the industry has to offer. Michele and Robert are just that. Not only are they proven leaders in their respective fields, but also strategic thinkers and visionaries. They will significantly strengthen what is already a highly accomplished team."

Established in 1908, The Osborn is a continuum of care community for seniors, offering a wide range of programs including independent living, assisted living, long-term skilled nursing support, home care assistance, short-term rehabilitation services, and dementia care through the H.O.P.E. Center. Individuals and families interested in learning more about The Osborn and its services are invited to call 914-925-8000 or visit www.theosborn.org
