

press release

Date: March 6, 2015

For Immediate Release

Press contact: Lenora D'Apice, Executive Director of Advancement, ldapice@presbyterianhome.com, or 315-624-9972

Presbyterian Homes Foundation Announces New Board Members

NEW HARTFORD, NY – Presbyterian Homes Foundation has announced six new board members: Stephen Caruso, John Collis, Nancy Eannace, Kristine Giotto, Dean Kelly, and Jan Moore. In the coming year, board members will be responsible for steering the operations for the Foundation, the fundraising arm of Presbyterian Homes & Services.

Stephen Caruso is an Investment Advisor with Caruso McLean Investment Advisors in Utica. Caruso, a graduate of Bucknell University and a Chartered Financial Analyst since 2009, has served as Treasurer of Hospice & Palliative Care since 2012. He is a member of St. John the Evangelist Church, and lives in New Hartford with his wife and two children.

John Collis is an owner of Fred F. Collis & Sons in Yorkville. He holds a BS in Financial Management from Clemson University, and is currently a board member of Friends of the ARC Foundation and VP of the Rome Rotary. Collis lives in Yorkville with his wife and two children.

Nancy Eannace is a Funeral Director for 32 years at Eannace Funeral Home, Inc. in Utica. She holds degrees in Business Administration and Mortuary Science. Eannace is a former board member at East Utica Senior Center, and Abraham House in Utica. She is a member of St. Anthony of Padua and St. Agnes Church, where she is a volunteer, and has worked on a number of committees and fundraisers. She lives in New Hartford with her husband.

Kristine Giotto is Director of Giotto Enterprises/Fiber Instrument Sales in Oriskany. Giotto, a graduate of SUNY Oneonta and SUNY Cortland, has served as an Elder at New Hartford Presbyterian Church, and is currently Director/Secretary of Utica Landmark Tower, and Chairman/Committeeperson of NHRC. She is a past volunteer at Hope House, St. Elizabeth Hospital Foundation, ALS of Utica, and Utica Symphony. A resident of New Hartford, Giotto and her husband have five children.

Dean Kelly is President of JAY-K Independent Lumber Corporation in New Hartford. Kelly is a graduate of Northeastern University, and currently serves on the boards of Upstate Cerebral Palsy, and First Source Federal Credit Union. He has one daughter, and lives with his wife in New Hartford.

Jan Moore is the retired Music Director of the Rome City School District. She has been involved with Girl Scouting for 55 years, as a member, leader, and camp counselor, and taught at the Saratoga Potsdam Choral Institute at SPAC. Moore has volunteered with the Chamber Music Society of Utica, B Sharp Musical Club, Oneida County Music Educators' Association, and Rome City Schools, and has been a part-time church organist/pianist and choir director. She lives in Sherrill with her husband.

Presbyterian Homes Foundation is a member of the Presbyterian Homes & Services' family of services, which includes the Presbyterian Home for Central New York, Presbyterian Residential Community, The Meadows at Middle Settlement, and Preswick Glen independent senior living community. Presbyterian Homes & Services excels in providing health care, housing and community services while promoting individual wellness and independence in a dignified manner.

For more information on Presbyterian Homes Foundation, contact Lenora D'Apice, Executive Director of Advancement, at ldapice@presbyterianhome.com, or 315-624-9972.

###

Caption

Board Members, current (standing, l to r): Paul Pimpinella, Richard Widdicombe, Dan Freytag, Jim Hill, Phil Williams; and new (seated, l to r): Jan Moore, Dean Kelly, Kristine Giotto, Stephen Caruso. Members not shown: John Collis, Nancy Eannace, Stephen Keyser.