Wartburg Named One of America's Best Nursing Homes by Newsweek for 2026

Mount Vernon, NY – [October 15, 2025] – Wartburg, a premier provider of comprehensive senior care services, has been recognized by Newsweek on its 2026 list of America's Best Nursing Homes, reaffirming Wartburg's longstanding commitment to excellence in care, compassion, and innovation for older adults.

The annual ranking, developed in partnership with Statista Inc., identifies the nation's top nursing homes based on performance data, peer recommendations, and adherence to high standards of quality and safety. Wartburg's continued recognition among this elite group underscores its reputation as one of New York's most trusted and respected senior care communities.

"In this challenging environment, I am once again proud of our continued presence as a top-tier nursing home, which is only possible because of our employees' steadfast commitment to care and service to others," said Wartburg President David J. Gentner, Ed.D. "More important than independent recognition is the relationship we have with our residents and families—it's a relationship built on trust."

Bridget Zimmermann, Wartburg's Vice President of Operations, added, "We are honored to be recognized by Newsweek as one of the Best Nursing Homes in New York. This recognition reflects the compassion, dedication, and professionalism of our entire team who work tirelessly each day to provide exceptional care to our residents. Earning this distinction highlights our ongoing commitment to clinical excellence, person-centered care, and continuous improvement. I am incredibly proud of our staff and grateful to the families and residents who place their trust in us."

Wartburg's mission—to nurture mind, body, and spirit through comprehensive care—continues to guide every aspect of its work, from skilled nursing and rehabilitation to assisted and independent living, adult day services, and memory care. The organization's integrated approach ensures that residents receive not only superior clinical care but also the dignity, respect, and compassion that define Wartburg's 160-year legacy.

About Wartburg

Nestled in Mount Vernon, NY, Wartburg stands apart with its holistic approach to senior living and healthcare. Unlike other adult communities, Wartburg offers a vibrant 34-acre campus where residents enjoy integrated services that extend well beyond typical care. Whether it is independent living, assisted living, rehabilitation or adult day care, Wartburg's continuum of care is designed to meet diverse needs with excellence. Their dedication to families extends beyond medical care, providing robust caregiver support at every stage. Recognized as one of the "Best Nursing Homes in New York State" by U.S. News & World Report for a remarkable thirteen years running, Wartburg continues to set the standard in senior care, fostering a community where well-being thrives. Wartburg's most recent development, the Berkemeier Living Center, features 64 state-of-the-art residences for those living with Alzheimer's Disease and related dementia. Each floor is designed as a small-scale household, providing an intimate and comfortable feel for the residents, staff, and families. Key planning elements such as short walking distances, oversized windows for increased natural light, and enhanced views are included in the design to help support a healing environment. Additionally, each household features its own living, dining and kitchen space, as well as gathering lounges. The ground floor includes an event space, music therapy and creative aging room.
