Millage History

Original LeadingAge NY Millage Calculation (2010-2014)

LeadingAge moved to a millage system of dues calculation in 2009. The actuarially sound model was designed by Lang CPA Consulting. The system was designed to create dues equity across the membership and for the association to be more closely tied to member revenue, both increases and decreases. Prior to 2010, LeadingAge New York dues were based on the number of beds and/or units in a member organization for most member types and a straight percentage rate for other types.

Current LeadingAge NY Millage Calculation (2015)

A new millage formula was created and implemented beginning with calendar year 2015 that more equitably tied dues to member revenue and reduced dues for most members. The original intent of the 2010 dues structure was to institute a “millage” system that tied dues levels to members’ annual program revenue, thus connecting the growth of the association’s revenue to its members’ revenue growth. However, the old dues system was not implemented as a true millage system with dues calculated as a percentage of revenue – instead, it was comprised of seven tiers of flat fees with a very small millage amount calculated on top of each flat fee. At one point on the fee scale, dues decreased as revenue grew - the opposite of the original intent.

The new dues, adopted by the Board of Directors for dues year 2015, is a true millage system with a series of caps to prevent large increases in dues. The minimum dues are $400 and maximum for an individual member are $32,000.

Dues Change for national LeadingAge dues calculation (2018)

In October of 2017, LeadingAge formed a task force to create a new dues structure that would serve to: avoid calculation errors; reduce year-to-year fluctuations produced by the existing millage system; reduce dues for members with the lowest revenues, provide standard exceptions for members that LeadingAge desires in membership but who may struggle to pay due to high cost; and would remain revenue neutral for the association.

The result was a 10-level dues band structure that provides a flat dues amount for provider members within the band. Each band is defined by a revenue range based on program service revenue, rent or operating budget figure. The dues amount per band grew from the existing millage formula to keep the change as neutral as possible. Only 15 percent of members see a notable increase or decrease due to the change to dues bands, and LeadingAge will work with states to ensure an easy transition. Special dues considerations were created for adult day (flat fee of $200), PACE (flat fee of $2,500), and hospice (50 percent off band amount). The corporate multisite program accounts will remain on millage system if cumulative PSR is over $27 million. The new system is expected to result in a one percent reduction in provider dues revenue for year one (2019).

Definition: Program Service Revenue

Dues are calculated on based on a member organization’s program service revenue, audited financials, operating budget, annual P&L statement, or rental income for housing members. Program service revenue is defined as: The revenue an organization receives from aging services. It EXCLUDES unrelated items such as interest, realized and unrealized gains or losses, special events or activities and charitable contributions. Program revenue activities are “primarily those that form the basis for an organization’s exemption from tax,” according to the IRS. Program service revenue is reported on Part I, Line 9 of the 990-form filed with the IRS or may be identified in an organization’s Medicaid cost report, operating cost, or year-end financial statement.

Housing Management Companies

Special consideration was given in structuring a membership type for housing management companies and related properties to provide adequate communication privileges and rights to both the management company corporate office as well as individual joined properties. The perspective and participation of management companies is greatly appreciated in LeadingAge New York leadership. Management companies are often able to articulate emerging trends and are essential leaders in the affordable housing profession.

- Housing member dues will be calculated on total program revenue per property for 202, 236, Mitchell-Lama and tax credit with section 8 properties serving seniors. Dues will be assessed based on total program revenue using the standard LeadingAge New York millage chart and calculations. Housing management companies will receive complimentary LeadingAge New York membership and be classified as Affiliate Members with corresponding benefits.
- Management companies are encouraged to join all the properties under their umbrella. For organizations in positions of leadership in LeadingAge New York this is particularly encouraged as a show of good faith.
- The following formula is expected to be honored as management companies join their properties: Between 1-20 properties join 90%; 20 + properties join 20 + 50% of the number over 20.
- A three-year phase-in will apply for current management companies. All new management company members will be permitted to phase in over four years. At minimum, the property with the largest revenue must join in year one and 1/3 of the remaining will join each year for the next three years until the 90% cap is reached.
- Once the cap is reached, housing management companies will be eligible for a complimentary LeadingAge membership.
- LeadingAge national no longer give automatic membership to for-profit management companies who manage non-profit member communities when they join two or more of their communities.

Dues Payments

If a member is in arrears, all subsequent payments will be applied to the earliest outstanding dues invoice first.

If a member negotiates a payment plan and then fails to follow the terms of the payment plan, or request a modification, the termination process will commence.

These members will receive the full benefits of membership immediately and will begin paying dues at the beginning of the next dues year. Complimentary memberships

On occasion, LeadingAge New York and LeadingAge may agree to provide a complimentary one-year membership. All complimentary memberships must be approved by the LeadingAge regional vice president and the LeadingAge New York president.

After the complimentary status expires, a new member's dues will be calculated on the program revenue amount the member provides (i.e. multiplied by 50 percent the first year and 100 percent in year two). If program revenue cannot be provided, communication with the LeadingAge New York president is required.

Hardship policy

LeadingAge New York follows LeadingAge's hardship policy as follows:

We understand that members can face short-term hardships, and we need to be sensitive to those individual situations. LeadingAge will offer two possibilities for hardship cases: either complimentary membership or a 50 percent reduction in dues for one year. At the end of that year, a decision will be made regarding the need for continuation.

LeadingAge New York will agree to those options only if LeadingAge matches the dues reduction and the member is not paying dues to a competing association. Communication with the LeadingAge New York president or designee about each of these situations is critical. The LeadingAge New York president or designee must approve all LeadingAge New York dues reductions.

Suggested criteria when creating a hardship policy:

- Member puts the hardship request providing financial reasons in writing
- Member's level of participation in and support for the association is determined
- Length of membership is considered
- Confirm whether the membership in competing associations is considered
- Member's current occupancy levels or operating loss is considered
