For Immediate Release:

The Wesley Community delivers holiday cheer to residents at Wesley Health Care Center

Saratoga Springs, N.Y., Dec. 22, 2021 – The Wesley Community delivered holiday cheer this week to the residents at the Wesley Health Care Center in Saratoga Springs, NY.

A special holiday gift was delivered to each individual resident at the long-term senior care facility at The Wesley Community ahead of the upcoming holiday weekend.

Wesley staff purchased and donated nearly 130 presents for the residents, while the remaining gifts were purchased through donations to The Wesley Foundation. The annual tradition of caring and sharing at Wesley Health Care Center ensures all residents enjoy the holiday season.

For more than 40 years, Wesley Health Care Center has provided quality nursing care for aging adults and seniors through a variety of services, including: long-term care; light care geriatrics; Alzheimer's and memory support; and a short-term rehabilitation program.

Wesley Health Care Center is part of The Wesley Community, a 37-acre continuum of care campus in Saratoga Springs which provides seniors with a variety of levels of care including independent living, assisted living, long-term care, outpatient therapies, short-term rehabilitation and home care.
