

The Osborn's WellSpring Series Presents Purchase Dance Company on Nov. 18

Rye, NY, November 3, 2023: Continuing the fall season of its WellSpring Series, The Osborn will present Purchase Dance Company on Saturday, November 18 at 1:00 p.m. The dance concert will be held in The Osborn's Auditorium at 101 Theall Road in Rye.

The Purchase Dance Company will perform exciting excerpts from their fall repertory, including classical ballet and contemporary dance works. The show will feature BFA Dance majors from the Conservatory of Dance at Purchase College, with a chance for dialogue with the dancers after the performance. Purchase College is recognized as having one of the nation's most highly regarded dance conservatories, whose students embody professionalism, versatility, and virtuosity.

The Osborn's WellSpring program engages seven dimensions that enrich lives: intellectual, social, physical, environmental, occupational, emotional, and spiritual. At The Osborn, residents can stay fit by taking exercise classes, swimming in the indoor pool, or walking on the picturesque arboretum grounds. They can paint in the art studio, browse in the three libraries, view films and listen to live music, and enjoy an array of other fitness, cultural, and social activities.

With the fall 2023 WellSpring Series, The Osborn welcomes the wider community to share world-class cultural programs close to home. The final WellSpring event of this season will feature Christina Baker Kline, acclaimed author of The Exiles, on December 6.
