

The Osborn Performs Day of Service at the African American Cemetery

Rye, NY, January 28, 2022: Employees of The Osborn, a private, non-profit continuum of care community in Rye, were joined by NYS Assemblyman Steven Otis to lend a helping hand to Town of Rye staff and community volunteers to rake leaves, trim underbrush and help clean up the African American Cemetery. Volunteers, including The Osborn's President and CEO Matthew G. Anderson, Michele and Kevin Thomas, Bill Dadlani and Richard Sgaglio, and students from Rye High School and Port Chester High School, assisted at the historic cemetery as part of the Town of Rye's Day of Service on January 23, 2022.
