Local Artists in Pittsford Art Group Have Work Displayed at Friendly Home Through the End of the Year

Brighton, N.Y. — Friendly Home is proud to display several pieces of art from the Pittsford Art Group. The collections by several artists are featured now through the end of December at Friendly Home. Community members are welcome to come to the Friendly Home art exhibit and enjoy Pittsford Art Group's collection from 10:00am to 5:00pm.

"Art enriches the lives of Friendly Home Members," said Denise Hubler, VP of Marketing & Development for Friendly Senior Living. "We are very pleased to bring exhibits from the Pittsford Art Group to the Friendly Home for our Members, families and staff to enjoy. Our long-time partnership with the Pittsford Art Group provides a wonderful opportunity to showcase the fine works of local artists while benefitting our Members."

Pittsford Art Group is a nonprofit group of artists with a keen interest in and appreciation for fine art and actively developing artistic talents. It's committed to promoting the education, appreciation, enjoyment and distribution of fine art. Pittsford Art Group membership benefits include educational art lectures, demonstrations and the opportunity to exhibit in numerous venues.

The list of artists whose work will be featured at Friendly Home include Sylvia Ball, Sylvie Culbertson, Laura Davis, Hiroko Jusko, Eunchung Kim, Carol Schott, Joseph Sirianni, Diane Tank, Cathy Schwegler, Margie Mitchell, Betsy Liano, Laurie Tappel and Ann Limbeck.
